Leeway Cottage - Beth Gutcheon

A Victorian summer house - Leeway Cottage - is the one constant in the life of Annabee Sydney Brant Moss. Covering the time period from 1924 to 1993, this book explores the relationship between two people who are very different. Annabee grows up the privileged only child of a father who dotes on her and a mother who seems to resent her.

Leeway Cottage by Beth Gutcheon - Goodreads

Leeway Cottage by Beth Gutcheon is a wonderfully written story that is a blend of her vivid storytelling and obvious research. She paints such a clear picture of life in summer village in Maine, as well as the contrast between the summer residents and the lives of those upstairs and downstairs.

Gutcheon then moves back to trace the history of Leeway Cottage in Maine and the miserable childhood of Sydney Brant, anxious daughter of cold, disapproving Candace. In 1938, Sydney falls in love with expatriate Danish pianist Laurus Moss, drawn to his warmth and delighted to shock her snobbish mother by marrying the grandson of a baker.

LEEWAY COTTAGE | Kirkus Reviews

Leeway Cottage is a story. It is about something, for me, but its job is to be a story about specific people, as true as it can be about its own time and place. Sydney is as much shaped by the fact that she has a monster mother, that she is an only child, that her father died when she was young, and by her simultaneously deprived and over ...

Leeway Cottage Interview - Beth Gutcheon

(Booklist) The New York Times bestselling author of More Than You Know, Leeway Cottage, and Death at Breakfast delivers the second installment in her clever romp of a mystery series combining social comedy and dark-hearted murder—a novel set at a girls' boarding school in a picturesque Hudson River town with more than its share of secrets.

Beth Gutcheon | author Website

More Than You Know went on to become a Los Angeles Times Best Book of the Year. Leeway Cottage (2005) became a national bestseller the same year that HarperCollins republished Gutcheon's entire backlist in uniform trade paperback editions. Since then, her entire fiction backlist has been continuously in print.

Beth Gutcheon - Wikipedia

Gutcheon is a wonderful storyteller, from the family history of the owners of the Elms and Leeway Cottage, to the children with their dreams and how their families affect them. There's really two stories here, that intertwine as families are joined.
