It has quite different protagonists than usual Fear Street books, as the characters themselves are "bad", I mean in the way that Dawn is a cheater and she knows it and doesn't care. It did start off a bit teeny with all the schoolgirl bitchiness etcc. but it developed into an interesting storyline.

The premise of The Rich Girl is much better than the actual book. I love R.L. Stine and his Fear Street books, as you know, but this was not his best - at least in my opinion.
